

Welcome Pack

Birmingham International Dance Festival 2022

---

BIRMINGHAM
INTERNATIONAL
DANCE FESTIVAL

Hello and welcome to Birmingham International Dance Festival 2022!

This is a pack containing all you should need to know during your time with us for the festival. However, if there is anything you are unsure of, please feel free to ask as it's what we are here for.

What's Included?

Welcome pack contains all the information you should need on where you are working, including practicalities such as health and safety, your accommodation, directions/maps, and useful contacts.

Artist guidelines we want all artists and companies to feel safe and comfortable whilst performing at Birmingham International Dance Festival and have put necessary procedures and precautions in place to make sure this is possible. Please read this section carefully and note that guidelines are subject to change at any point with national Government guidelines.

Thanks for taking the time to read through this and we hope you enjoy your time with us!

Arrival

Airport Arrivals

To make your travel from Birmingham Airport (BHX) to Birmingham New Street straight forward we would recommend you take the train. Birmingham Airport is directly connected to Birmingham International train station by a free Air-Rail Link system which takes 2 minutes to get to the station. Air-rail pictured below.

From Birmingham International Station there are a number of regular trains that stop at Birmingham New Street which is on average 10-20 minute journey. You can find these trains leaving Birmingham International roughly every 10 minutes.

Car

Birmingham Clean Air Zone launched on 1st June 2021, charges will be applied daily. A non-compliant vehicle driving within the Zone will pay once per day, and may drive without limit on that day. To find out more and to check if charges apply to your vehicle please visit: Drive in a clean air zone - GOV.UK \(www.gov.uk\) and enter your registration details.

Uber

If travelling by car/uber the journey is roughly 11 miles taking 20 minutes. Ubers are readily available from the station heading into Birmingham city centre.

TOA Taxis

TOA Taxis are our recommended local taxi service.
These taxis are able to take cash or card as payment.

Practicalities // DanceXchange

There are some things you need to know about your time with us. We will go through most of this when you arrive but just in case we miss anything or you have any questions, here's the information you need to know.

Passports

Due to Home Office regulations, please ensure that you have uploaded passport information to Eventotron to prove your right to work. If not uploaded, we need to see and take copied of all non-UK residents' passports. Please make sure you have these ready at your company get in at your performance venue.

Personal Items

DanceXchange cannot accept any liability for damage to, loss or theft of personal property on its premises. We strongly advise you not to leave money or valuables unattended at any time.

Accidents and First Aid

Please report any accidents to a member of staff and we can then, if necessary, locate a First Aid trained member of the team to assist. If you require plasters, ice packs and so on please ask a member of staff who will be happy to help.

Fire Evacuation Procedure

It is important to familiarise yourself with the fire escape routes and alarm points. Please do not leave anything, including props and costumes, in corridors or other escape routes.

The Festival wants to ensure we keep all company members and staff on site safe. We request every person take a Lateral Flow Test every 48 hours whilst with us at the Festival and on site. These tests will be provided by the Festival once you arrive to site.

Accessibility

Our wonderful team of staff, Front of House assistants and volunteers are available for assistance during your visit to the Festival. We are happy to chat with you ahead of your visit to make you feel comfortable and at home during your time with us.

We work from the Social Model of Disability, which, by focusing on the disabling barriers imposed by society, embraces all physical, sensory and invisible impairments, learning disability, mental health, neurodivergent and fatigue conditions. Some of our core staff members have attended Disability Awareness training but we always have more to learn, so please talk to us about your individual requirements so we can discuss how we can accommodate them.

Quiet spaces are available and all our Festival spaces both indoor and outdoor are wheelchair accessible, disability & assistance dog friendly.

Events & Performances

As part of our commitment to ensuring we deliver an inclusive and accessible Festival, we offer a range of access provisions and assisted performances.

BSL interpretation, captioning and audio description are available for some of our indoor and outdoor events. We also have a number of highly visual shows which contain few or no words and are particularly enjoyable without the aid of hearing. For an extensive list of these shows as well as which accommodate which requirements, please see the access tab on our website.

<https://bidf.co.uk/access/>

All of our indoor theatre shows are taking place in the Patrick Studio inside Birmingham Hippodrome. They are similarly committed to access and so for more information and assistance on visiting the Hippodrome please see the access page on their website.

<https://www.birminghamhippodrome.com/plan-your-visit/access/>

If you have any specific requirements we aren't already aware of, please contact access@dx.dance

Performance Schedule

Meeting Point / Arrival Location

Upon arrival at each venue a member of the BIDE team will greet you and provide you with a lateral flow test. Each company member will need to take one of these every 48 hours during their time at the festival. Once checked they will take you to your allocated dressing room/holding space.

Please arrive no later than 1 hour prior to your performance time. And ensure you arrive promptly for your allocated technical rehearsal.

Tech Rehearsal Information

If not already arranged please contact the relevant producer, but please note not all sites are able to accommodate this.

Holding Spaces

Weekend 1:

Rooms at the ICC are available from Friday 17th June to Sunday 19th June.

Please arrive to Centenary Square outdoor site and a member of the festival team will take you to a holding room.

ICC

Broad Street
Birmingham
B1 2EA

Weekend 2:

Jurys Inn Conference Room is available from Friday 24th June to Sunday 26th June for performers in the city centre.

Please refer to Jurys Inn site information including address and contact number on page 11 of this pack.

Weekend 3:

Due to the nature of the site, indoor spacing is limited. However, we have a small holding space called Sons of Rest. Please refer to Handsworth Park address on page 4 of this pack.

Please arrive to Handsworth Park site and a member of the festival team will take you to the holding room.

Cafes, Bars & Restaurants

We hope you enjoy your time in Birmingham – if you are looking for somewhere to eat or drink, here's a list of places that we love. There are also several shops and eateries at Grand Central located above New Street Station.

 Wheelchair Accessible

Albert's Schloss (Paradise Circus, Chamberlain Square, B3 3AX)

Albert's Schloss celebrates the beloved Prince's values every day and all night long. Influenced by our travels across Alpine Europe; expect roaring fires, raucous performances and tankards of Europe's finest bier.

Cherry Reds (John Bright Street, B1 1BN)

Cherry Reds is an independent bar providing a range of food and drinks including freshly blended milkshakes as well as freshly ground coffee. We keep our café food simple, cooked to order, and with options for all diets.

Cosy Club (Bennetts Hill, B2 5SN)

Cosy Club celebrates the joys of relaxed dining, drinking, and lounging in a fabulous, welcoming setting!

Dishoom (Chamberlain Square, B3 3AX)

From Bombay with love. Our cafes are open for breakfast, lunch & dinner. Walk-ins always welcome.

Franco Manca (Bennetts Hill, B2 5QJ)

Franco Manca's dough is made fresh on site, their specials change daily and their prices start at just £5.95. Vegan & gluten free options are also available.

La Galleria (Ethel Street, B2 4BG)

An extensive menu of Italian specialties & made-to-order pizzas in a traditional setting.

Medicine Bakery (New Street, B2 4DU)

Local Shops

---

There are a number of small shops you can find in the city centre.

Tesco Express - Caxton Gate, New St, Birmingham B2 5AE

There is a big Tesco as you exit Birmingham New Street Station onto Stephenson Street. Walking straight ahead, passing Archie's and The Shakespeare pub on your left and Starbucks on your right you will see the Tesco Express right in front of you.

Sainsbury's Local - 10 Brindley Place, Birmingham B1 2JB

This Sainsbury's local is right opposite Jurys Inn Hotel, located on Broad Street. If Jurys Inn is on your left, this Sainsbury's will be just ahead on your right.

Corner shops

There is one corner shop Sandhu Newsagent & Off Licence right next to Handsworth park on Holly Road (on the side of the park with the play area). It is on the corner of Holly Road and Thornhill Road.

There are a number of corner shops available on Soho Road about a 15 minute walk away from the park.
