We are always widening our diverse company pool of artists, and this day is an opportunity to show us your work and how you might fit in with the team and our ethos. We are particularly interested in applicants who have a Global Majority heritage/background. For clarity we recognise Global Majority as a term for people that includes people of Indigenous, African, Caribbean, East Asian, South Asian, South East Asian, Latin American, mixed heritage and other ethnic groups who are often racialised as 'ethnic minorities'

'I walked away with a smile! It was like seeing an old black and white Charlie Chaplin movie and watching it change into colour, traditional styles of dance, music and mime mixed with the new, beautiful and genius....' Lil Tim, breakdancer

So if you're up for joining a groundbreaking company, are prepared to learn new moves and fuse folk with hip hop, love working outdoors, can be part of a team to build and strike the set with grace and good humour, are a good communicator, who will camp on the odd occasion and put their all into the show - then come on down!
